

Real change. Right here in our community.

By giving to Community Works, you support member organizations that have:

Recruited 17,000 men and boys to pledge their support for ending violence against women.

Fought for and helped win equal rights marriage cases in Vermont, Massachusetts, and Connecticut.

Established 3-year internships for teens to develop environmental organizers and leaders.

Provided nutrition and pre-school education for 90 Zambian AIDS orphans.

Engaged over 5,000 low-income citizens in the political process through community organizing in their neighborhoods.

For current updates and how you can get involved visit: communityworks.com.

Workplace Giving

If your employer already includes Community Works in your company's workplace giving campaign, you can choose Community Works on your pledge form. If your Workplace does not yet offer Community Works as a charitable giving option, please contact us at 617-423-9555 or admin@communityworks.com.

How to give individually

If you are self-employed, changing jobs, or don't wish to give through your employer, you can support us by clicking on the Donate Now page at communityworks.com or just call us at 617-423-9555.

Over 25 years of funding change in greater Boston.

Community Works is a cooperative fundraising effort among 31 local organizations committed to finding immediate and long-range solutions to social problems. We provide a growing source of financial support for our members from people who give through workplace giving campaigns.

Contact us at
communityworks.com
admin@communityworks.com
617-423-9555
25 West Street
Boston, MA 02111

All contributions are tax deductible

You can make a difference here.

Together, we're changing people's lives.

Imagine a society where everyone is included in the equitable sharing of resources—adequate and affordable housing, excellent public education, affordable health care, safe work environments, livable wages, and freedom from discrimination.

At Community Works, we turn this vision into reality. Our membership represents a portfolio of community-based social justice organizations working to build the human capacity that is vital to address the challenges facing our neighborhoods, our communities, and our planet.

You can be part of creating these solutions. By making a sustained donation to Community Works, you invest in social and economic change.

What you can do to help.

Make a donation today

Talk to your employer about offering Community Works

Volunteer with one of our member organizations

Attend Community Works fundraising events (details at communityworks.com)

Honor or remember a loved one with a gift to Community Works

2000 Community Works

A funding partnership of grassroots, community-based organizations committed to social and economic justice. Contributions to Community Works are divided evenly among our member organizations, with the exception of Associate Members (designated with an *) who receive designated contributions only.
617-423-9555 communityworks.com

2039 Alternatives for Community & Environment (ACE)

Builds a resident-led environmental justice movement in communities of color and low-income communities by employing policy, legal, and organizing strategies to create healthy environments.

2060 American Civil Liberties Union of Massachusetts (ACLU-MA)*

Mobilizes activists and students for advocacy, education and organizing campaigns to uphold the rights and protections that are hallmarks of our constitutional system.

2001 Asian American Resource Workshop (AARW)

Utilizes arts, anti-racist education, leadership development, and community activism to support and develop Asian Pacific Islander American community and identity.

2036 Association of Haitian Women of Boston/Asosiyasyon Fanm Ayisyen nand Boston (AFAB)

Organizes low-income Haitian women and their children to improve their social, economic and personal health through affordable housing, domestic violence prevention, legal advocacy and education.

2003 Boston Self Help Center (BSH)

Created by and for people with a disability or chronic illness, BSH improves access to systems and services through peer-driven information sharing, counseling and advocacy training.

2047 Boston Tenants Coalition (BTC)*

Mobilizes grassroots groups to protect the rights of tenants and increase the supply of affordable housing for poor, disabled and elderly individuals and families.

2004 Boston Women's Fund (BWF)

Sustains communities by providing grants and developing programs that strengthen grassroots initiatives and create a legacy of leadership for women and girls.

2049 Center for New Words*

Uses the power and creativity of words and ideas to strengthen the diverse voices of women in the cultural, social and political conversation.

2900 Communities without Borders*

Massachusetts volunteers build community to community relationships to provide education for AIDS orphans, primarily in Africa.

2010 Concerned United Birthparents (CUB)

Works with birthparents, adoptees and adoptive parents to educate, advocate and promote reform of adoption policy and practice in the best interest of the child.

2011 Cooperative Artists Institute (CAI)

Applies arts as a catalyst, empowering people to overcome challenges created by family and community fragmentation through communication, caring and understanding across cultures and generations.

2014 Emerge: Counseling and Education to Stop Domestic Violence

Pioneers innovative collaborations, trainings and abuser education programs to end intimate partner violence, promote healthy, respectful relationships and improve institutional responses to domestic violence.

2037 Greater Four Corners Action Coalition

Spearheads efforts with low-income residents and people of color in this Dorchester neighborhood to increase job opportunities, improve transportation services and address crime and safety.

2015 Gay and Lesbian Advocates and Defenders (GLAD) (Park Square Advocates, Inc.)

Uses proven, strategic leadership to end discrimination based on sexual orientation, HIV status, gender identity and expression through legal and legislative advocacy and education.

2016 Hawthorne Youth and Community Center (HYCC)

Prepares youth for academic, career, and personal success through diverse educational, cultural, recreational and vocational programming, and empowers Highland Park residents to address community issues.

2043 Health Care for All, Inc. (HCFA)*

Seeks to create a comprehensive, affordable and accessible consumer-centered health care system for everyone through legal, legislative and policy advocacy, education, referrals and community organizing.

2017 Jane Doe Inc., The Massachusetts Coalition Against Sexual Assault and Domestic Violence

Advocates for a sustainable statewide network of services, and influences policy and practices that promote safety, liberty and dignity of survivors and their children.

2042 Massachusetts Coalition for Occupational Safety and Health (MassCOSH)

Engages youth and adults to change policy, build alliances to end dangerous working conditions and create safe, healthy jobs and promote environmental and economic justice.

2018 Massachusetts Senior Action Council (MSAC)

Addresses seniors' common concerns, including issues such as health care, safety, transportation and housing through the collective action of low and moderate income seniors.

2020 Mental Patients Liberation Front (MPLF)

Provides peer-run alternatives to traditional mental health services through projects at the Ruby Rogers Advocacy and Drop-In Center and the Homeless Empowerment Advisory Project.

2048 Neighbor to Neighbor Massachusetts (N2N-MA)

Builds the power of low-income communities by developing sustainable grassroots leadership, forging strategic alliances and registering voters to impact policy and priorities affecting working families.

2005 Our Bodies Ourselves (also known as Boston Women's Health Book Collective)

Shares unique evidence-based information and expert advocacy in an effort to promote the improved health and well-being of women and their families, locally and around the world.

2021 Paige Academy

Fosters academic excellence, individual worth and collective responsibility through an African-centered, culturally affirming and developmentally-based Arts, Sciences, Humanities, Technology program for children under twelve.

2022 Poor People's United Fund (PPUF)

Emphasizes the moral and ethical dimensions of poverty and offers critical support to individuals and groups serving poor, homeless, hungry and elderly people.

2024 Renewal House (Benevolent Fraternity of Unitarian Churches, Inc.)

Provides safety and hope for victims of domestic violence by providing shelter, counseling and advocacy that fully address their physical, emotional and spiritual needs.

2045 Survivors, Inc.*

Organizes and advocates for the rights of low-income women, challenging economic injustice and mobilizing for a decent standard of living for all people.

2046 Teen Voices/Women Express, Inc.

Instills belief that the world for girls everywhere can be changed using journalism mentoring, leadership development and production of an international magazine by and for teen girls.

2041 Waltham Alliance to Create Housing, Inc. (WATCH, Inc.)

Organizes local residents to preserve and create affordable housing, expand opportunities for diverse low- and moderate-income families, and strengthen neighborhoods in the Waltham area.

2033 The Welcome Project

Partners with Somerville's immigrant community at the Mystic Public Housing Development and surrounding neighborhoods to access services and engage in civic and community life.

2050 The Women's Center, Inc.*

Advances the voices of women, gives space and support for activism, learning, developing new skills, and healing from domestic violence, child sexual abuse and other trauma.

2035 Women's Institute for Leadership Development (WILD)

Creates leadership development training and support for women of all races in workplaces, unions and community organizations to build a democratic, inclusive, anti-racist labor movement.

For more information visit
communityworks.com

